

PRESS RELEASE 16th Feb 2010

Large Yacht Solutions expansion continues with Alastair Hazell joining as Sales Director.

Large Yacht Solutions are pleased to announce the appointment of Alastair Hazell as Sales Director with immediate effect. Working from our Kingston upon Thames office, Alastair will be overseeing the strategic expansion of LYS services in 2010 and the continuing development of new and existing client relations.

With eight years of experience in Superyacht Finance, Alastair will be drawing on his wealth of understanding and ability to work alongside owners, their wealth managers, family officers or legal representatives when buying or building a large yacht.

After the initial stages of his career in banking involving intensive exposure to Credit Risk in both Marketing and Credit Control roles, Alastair moved on to spend ten years in International Private Banking with Coutts & Co. From there he was recruited in 2002 to join the new Superyacht Finance unit at Ansbacher & Co, moving with his team after five years to Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander Superyacht Finance.

Alastair has developed extensive contacts throughout the yachting industry, respect amongst his peers and we are very pleased to be able to harness his skills for the benefit of our clients. With a principle focus on client discretion and integrity mirroring those of Large Yacht Solutions we are delighted to have him onboard.

Please don't hesitate to contact Alastair on the following to discuss your yachting requirements:
